

World Bank Group Country Survey FY 2023 – Jamaica

The World Bank Group is interested in gauging your views as someone involved in development in Jamaica. The following survey will give us greater insight into how the Bank's work is perceived by its clients, partners, opinion leaders, and decision makers in Jamaica.

A local independent firm has been hired to oversee the logistics of this survey. This ensures anonymity and confidentiality. None of the results will be attributable to a specific individual. We hope you'll be candid. If you feel that you do not have enough information on a subject to answer a question, please select "Don't know".

If you have any questions about this survey, please contact us at:
