

The global ES methodology excludes micro firms (1-4 employees) from the universe of reference. Consequently, for the Slovak Republic, there are 2 datasets available. One including all observations (this is the expanded data set) and another excluding micro firms, which is the full data. Weights are not calculated for micro firms.