1991 FAMILY INCOME AND EXPENDITURES SURVEY

QUESTIONS FREQUENTLY ASKED BY RESPONDENTS

WHAT IS THIS SURVEY ALL ABOUT?

The Family Income and Expenditures Survey (FIES) is a nationwide survey of households undertaken every three (3) years as a rider to the quarterly Labor Force Survey (LFS). It aims to gather data on family income and family living expenditures and related information affecting income and expenditure levels and patterns in the Philippines. Also, through this survey, the sources of income and income distribution, levels of living and spending patterns and the degree of inequality among families will be determined. The survey likewise aims to provide benchmark information to update the weights in the estimation of consumer price index (CPI).

WHAT BENEFITS DO I GET FROM GIVING INFORMATION?

A continuing supply of data on income and expenditure of families in the country is needed by the government as basis for the formulation of policies and programs geared towards the improvement of our quality of life (i.e. housing projects, infrastructure programs, etc.). In addition, studies and projects on social welfare and economic development are also undertaken by private sectors/individuals using the data gathered in this survey. Hence, the benefits that can be taken from this survey is more of a national concern.

HOW WAS I SELECTED FOR THIS SURVEY?

Your household, rather than you personally was selected for this survey to represent hundreds of other households in your province. There are about 20,000 households nationwide selected scientifically for this survey.

HOW MANY TIMES WILL I BE VISITED?

You will be visited twice for this survey, now (July 1991) which will cover your family's income and expenditure for the period January to June 1991 and in January 1992 to cover data from July to December 1991.

I HESITATE TO TELL SOMETHING ABOUT THE MEMBERS OF MY FAMILY. WHAT PROTECTION DO I HAVE?

All information supplied by individuals to this office is held strictly confidential by law (Commonwealth Act No. 591, Section 4). Hence, the information which you will provide can never be used for purposes of taxation, investigation or enforcement procedures. It will never be published except in the form of statistical summaries in which no reference to an individual, corporation, association, partnership, institution or business enterprise shall appear. Any person who discloses specific information from this survey shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine or a jail penalty.

IS THIS SURVEY AUTHORIZED BY LAW?

Yes. Commonwealth Act No. 591 authorizes this office to collect by enumeration, sampling or other methods, statistics and other information concerning population, agricultural conditions, employment and other subjects.

Appendix B

DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATIONS

Respondent

The respondent interviewed in this survey is the household head or person who manages the finances of the family or any member of the family who can give reliable information or answers to the questionnaire.

Family

A family is defined as a group of persons usually living together and composed of the head and other persons related to the head by blood, marriage or adoption. For purposes of this survey, the "extended" family concept is followed. A single person living alone is considered as a separate family.

The following are the different types of household used in the survey:

1. Single family - refers to the household composed of a single nuclear family. (A nuclear family is composed of a father and mother with unmarried children or a parent with children). For purpose of the survey, a single person household is considered as a single family. Also considered are unmarried sisters and brothers who are living together as one household. The presence of a boarder and domestic helper will not change the household type.

2. Extended family - refers to the household composed of a nuclear family as defined above together with relatives like son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandson, granddaughter, father, mother and other relatives.

3. Two or more non-related members - refers to a household with two or more non-related families or two or more persons not related to each other by blood, marriage or adoption.

Family Size

This refers to the total number of family members enumerated. Included as family members are those whose relationship to the household head is spouse, son, daughter, father, mother, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, sister, brother, granddaughter and grandson or other relative.

Family Income

Total family income includes primary income and receipts from other sources received by all family members during the calendar year 1991 as participants in any economic activity or as recipients of transfers, pensions, grants, etc.

Primary income includes salaries and wages, commissions, tips, bonuses, family and clothing allowance, transportation and representation allowances, honoraria, and other forms of compensation and net receipts derived from the operation of family-operated enterprises/activities and the practice of a profession or trade.

Income from other sources include imputed rental values of owner-occupied dwelling units, interests, rentals including landowner's share of agricultural products, pensions, support and the value of food and non-food items received as gifts by the family (as well as the imputed value of services rendered free of charge to the family).

Also included as part of family income are receipts from family sustenance activities which are not considered as family-operated enterprise.

Following the International Labor Organization concept of income, the 1991 FIES excludes profits from sale of stocks and bonds, backpay and proceeds from insurance, net winnings from gambling, sweepstakes and lotteries and inheritance as part of family income. However, these are included as part of other receipts.

Income Decile

Two levels of income deciles were utilized in this survey - national and regional. The national income decile is obtained by ranking the weighted total family income of all sample families in the country from lowest to highest. Then these are grouped into tens. The first tenth, meaning those with the lowest income, is called the first decile; the second tenth, second decile and so on.

A similar procedure is implemented for the regional decile, except that what is arrayed is the weighted total family income of sample families in a given region.

Per Capita Income

Per capita income is obtained by dividing the total family income by the total number of family members.

Per Capita Income Decile

Similarly, two levels of per capita income decile were utilized - the national and regional per capita income decile. The per capita income of families for the whole country were arrayed in the national per capita income decile while in the regional per capita income decile, only those in a given region. These are subsequently grouped into tens, with the lowest comprising the first per capita income decile.

Main Source of Income

This refers to the source from which most of the income of the family is obtained. If the family has more than one source of income, the main source that would be considered is the source where the bulk of income is derived.

Salaries and Wages from Employment

It includes all forms of compensation whether in cash or in kind received by family members who are regular or occasional/seasonal workers in agricultural and non-agricultural industries.

Imputed Rent of Owner-Occupied Dwelling Unit

Imputed rent is the estimated amount that the owner of a dwelling unit would charge if he/she were to rent his/her entire dwelling unit monthly, unfurnished and excluding the costs for utilities. The rental value is based on the prevailing rate in the locality.

Imputed rent differs from amortization payments. Imputed rent refers to the value of the house/lot based on its utility while amortization payments refer to the periodic payments made by the family on real property they acquired on installment basis.

Imputed rent of free housing enjoyed by employees is also included.

Net Share of Crops, Fruits and Vegetables Produced or Livestock and Poultry Raised by Other Households

This refers to the family's share of harvested crops, fruits, vegetables, etc., from the tenant or from a fixed rent or any amount out of the produce during the reference period. It also includes the share of the family from the proceeds of the sale of pig, cow, etc. which the family owned but raised by others and disposed of during the reference period although there was no landlord-tenant relationship between the sample family and the one who raised it.

Received as Gifts

Received as gifts includes all food and non-food items received in kind by the family during the reference period. For food items, alcoholic beverages and tobacco received in kind by the family, only those consumed by the family during the reference period are included. Foodstuffs received in the form of support, assistance or relief are likewise considered as gifts. However, food items, alcoholic beverages and tobacco consumed by a family member at parties attended, or food items offered to him by friends are not included.

Food and non-food items received as gifts include those received from other households, charitable institutions, the government or from persons abroad, free of charge.

Entrepreneurial Activity

An entrepreneurial activity or a family-operated activity is any economic activity, business or enterprise whether in agriculture or in non-agricultural enterprises, engaged in by any member of the family as an operator or as self-employed.

Included as family-operated activities are those which are operated as single proprietorship or loose partnership, without formal organization. Thus partnerships, corporations, associations, etc. which are formally organized are excluded.

Family Sustenance Activity

A family sustenance activity is also a family activity but unlike an entrepreneurial activity, the produce from the former is mainly for home consumption. Occasionally, sales are made when the harvest/produce is more than enough for family consumption.

Family Expenditures

Family expenditures refer to the expenses or disbursements made by the family purely for personal consumption during the calendar year 1991. They exclude all expenses in relation to farm or business operations, investment ventures, purchase of real property and other disbursements which do not involve personal consumption.

Gifts, support, assistance or relief in goods and services received by the family from friends, relatives, etc., are also included as part of family expenditures.

Value consumed from net share of crops, fruits and vegetables produced or livestock raised by other households, family sustenance and entrepreneurial activities are also considered as family expenditures.

Food Consumed at Home

The items included in this portion covers the actual consumption (not expenditure) of the family during the past week. This category includes the food prepared at home and eaten in place of work, school, etc., and those home-cooked food bought outside the home but eaten at home.

Food consumption covers only the actual consumption of the family, as well as domestic helpers and other persons employed by the family to do odd jobs around the house, and family guests (relatives or non-relatives who are not members of the household but had stayed with or visited the family for less than a week within the past week). The consumption of boarders and other persons in the same household not related to the family is excluded from this category.

Food Regularly Consumed Outside the Home

This includes food regularly bought and eaten by the family members outside the home like snacks, merienda, lunch, etc. The daily allowance of school children for their sandwiches, softdrinks, etc. at school is also covered in this category.

Fuel, Light and Water

This refers to the total family consumption of fuel, light and water consumed during the reference period.

For a family who shares facilities with other households or whose total consumption includes both personal and business expenses, only an estimate of the family's personal consumption is reported.

Non-Durable Furnishings

This includes the value of all non-durable furnishings such as utensils and accessories (dinnerware, silverware, kitchen utensils, etc.) for family use acquired within the reference period including those bought/received by the family for use during special occasions.

If the non-durables are made at home for family use, the total value of the materials and the cost of labor paid are reported as the value of the finished products. However, the value of labor rendered by a household member free of charge is not included.

Durable Furniture and Equipment

This includes all durable furnishings or equipment such as pieces of furniture, garden tools, appliances, cars, etc. acquired on a cash basis during the reference period and intended for family use during ordinary days or during special occasions.

Those durable furniture and equipment purchased on installment basis during the reference period are also included. The reported total value is the total installments paid plus initial downpayment made on the item during the reference period.

Durable furniture made at home for family use are also reported in this part, hence, the value included is the value of the materials used and the cost of labor paid. Value of labor rendered by any member of the household free of charge is not included.

Taxes

The following forms of taxes were included in the survey:

1. Income Tax - refers to the tax levied on the income of a working person in pursuit of his occupation.

2. Real Estate Tax - refers to the tax imposed on real property of the family (e.g. house and lot for family use) in proportion to its value. This includes real estate tax levied on real property of the family used for personal purposes. Therefore, taxes levied on private properties of the family used solely for business purposes are excluded.

3. Car Registration, Toll Fees and Driver's License - this includes registration fees for motor vehicles used for private transport of the family, toll fees, etc.

4. Other Direct Taxes - direct taxes refer to taxes which are demanded from a taxpayer, who shoulders the burden of the tax; or tax which the taxpayer cannot shift to another. Specific examples are inheritance tax, alien certificate of registration (ACR), donor's tax, etc. Other taxes paid by the family such as custom's duties paid for personal effects bought from abroad, amusement tax and taxes paid as a consumer are also included.

Other Receipts

These are non-income receipts comprising of value at cost of real and personal property sold, loans from other households, business firms and government institutions, payments for loans granted to others and withdrawals from savings or business equity. Profits from sale of stocks and bonds, backpay and proceeds from insurance, net winnings from gambling, sweepstakes and lotteries and inheritance are also included as other receipts.

Other Disbursements

Other disbursements refer to non-family expenditures which may give an indication of savings on the part of the family. These include purchase or amortization of real property, payments of cash loan (principal), installments of appliances bought before 1991, installments for personal transport bought before 1991, loans granted to persons outside the household, amount deposited in banks or investments and major repair or construction of a house.

Urban/Rural Areas

The following guidelines used in the 1980 Census of Population and Housing in classifying urban areas were adopted.

1. In their entirety, all cities and municipalities having a population density of at least 1,000 persons per square kilometer.

2. Poblaciones or central districts of municipalities and cities which have a population density of at least 500 persons per square kilometer.

3. Poblaciones or central districts (not included in 1 and 2), regardless of the population size, which have the following:

- a. Street pattern, i.e. network of streets in either parallel or right angle orientation;
- b. At least six establishments (commercial, manufacturing, recreational and/or personal services);
- c. At least three of the following:
 - i) A town hall, church or chapel with religious services at least once a month;
 - ii) A public plaza, park or cemetery;
 - iii) A public market or building where trading activities are called on at least once a week;
 - iv) A public building like school, hospital, puericulture and health center or library.

4. Barangays having at least 1,000 inhabitants which meet the conditions set forth in 3 above, and where the occupation of inhabitants is predominantly non-farming or non-fishing.

All areas not falling under any of the above classifications are considered rural.

Medians and Averages; Rounding of Estimates

Medians and averages are computed from unrounded figures. All absolute figures are independently rounded to the nearest thousand; hence, the group total may not always be equal to the sum of the individual figures.

Percentages are computed from unrounded absolute figures and may not always add up to exactly 100.0 percent because of rounding. The total percent, however, is always shown as 100.0.
