John and Mary like to play near the school.

Yesterday, they found a red bilum behind a tree.

It had some money in it.

Mary's teacher is the only teacher in the school who has a red bilum.

The children took the bilum back to her.

She was very thankful for this and she gave them some ripe bananas.

[ENGLISH]

Now I'm going to read you a sentence. Listen carefully.

First, I will read the whole sentence.

Then I will break it into parts. You will write what you hear.

Then I will read it again and you can check and correct your work.

Do you understand what you are to do?

[TOK PISIN]

Nau bai mi ritim wanpela sentens long yu. Harim gut.

Nambawan taim, bai mi ritim olgeta sentens.

Bihain, bai mi brukim igo long liklik hap. Yu bai raitim wanem samting yu harim

Las tru, bai mi ritim gen na yu ken sekim na stretim wok bilong yu.

Yu klia long wanem samting bai yu mekim?

Go to the store and buy some rice and sugar

(As you read the sentence for the second time, pause between each group of words to allow the student some time to write)

Go to the store

and buy

some rice

and sugar
