QUESTIONNAIRE

Please follow this format precisely, so that your variable numbers will be identical with those from all other nations. Most of the variables in the questionnaire are 1 -digit, using "9" as the missing data code, if the variable has 9 or more categories, "99" is the missing data code. The "Don't know" or "Neither" option should never be suggested or printed on show cards. Please send your data to Ann Arbor in the form of an SPSS export file, on IBM-compatible (PC) diskettes. We will send SPSS control cards in English so that your variable names will be identical. This will help us get the results from other countries back to you speedily.

V1: Survey number. This is a constant, "4" which will be useful when we merge these data with those from three earlier surveys.

World Values Survey-Algeria
The University of Michigan and the University of Algiers

INTRODUCTION BY INTERVIEWER:

Hello. I am from the University of Algiers and the University of Michigan in the U.S. We are carrying out the Algerian part of a worldwide scientific study of what people value in life. This study will interview samples representing most of the world's people. Your name has been selected at random as part of a representative sample of the Algerian public. I'd like to ask your views on a number of different subjects. You are under no obligation to respond, and you need not answer any particular question you find inappropriate. But your help will contribute to a better understanding of what people all over the world believe and want out of life, and also to ensuring that Algeria is understood properly. Your answers will be completely confidential.

For each of the following, indicate whether it is very important, rather important, not very important or not important at all in your life.
