Data Collection Organization:

Intercollege Survey Research Center - KADEM

Fieldwork Period:

06-02-2006 - 31-03-2006.

Universe:

National Population, Both sexes, 18 and more years

Sample size:

1050

Estimated Error:

3,1

Questionnaire:

50 surveys were tested for the Greek and Turkish translations, 25 each, of the translated questionnaires.

Sample:

As indicated in our initial plan, representative samples were taken covering both the Greek Cypriot and Turkish Cypriot Communities of Cyprus. In the WVS-Cyprus study, a sample of 1,200 people (600 people from both urban and rural areas for each community) were collected for the Islands total population of 900,000. Samples are representative of all the major geographic areas in Cyprus. The general population was divided into subsets, or strata, according to gender, age and place of residence covering all districts of the north and south of Cyprus. After stratifying the population, we selected the samples randomly within the strata. The samples chosen were based on a 95% confidence interval and a sampling error of $\pm 4.0\%$.

Remarks about sampling:

Two Survey companies carried out the study under supervision of Dr. Birol Yesilada. On the Greek side of Cyprus, Intercollege Survey Research Center administered 600 face-to-face surveys in teams of 5 surveyors headed by team supervisor. On the Turkish side of Cyprus 550 surveys were carried out by KADEM. The two Research centers coordinated their survey efforts in the past and have participated in large scale surveys including the Eurobarometer and local survey projects.

Survey procedure:

Personal Face to Face Interview

Fieldwork:

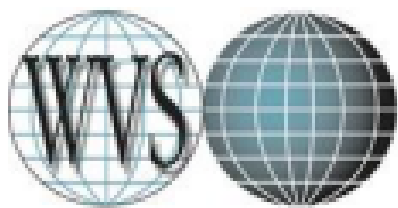

1. We begin from the side of the road with odd numbers (1,3,5,7..) 2. We start from the first house at the beginning of the road. Then we leave one house behind, and knock on the next one. 3. If the age or the sex of the person is not applicable, we move to the next house. If they refuse to answer the questionnaire, we again move on to the next house. 4. Two-storey houses count as 2 separate houses. At the first such house we come across we knock on the door of the downstairs unit; on the next such house, we choose the upstairs unit. 5. On blocks of flats, we knock on the door of one flat per floor: specifically, the one that is situated on the right-hand side of the elevator/staircase, of each floor. 6. If we do not complete the required number of houses in a particular road, we turn right and we start again from the side where the odd numbers are. 7. We do not go to shops, neither to houses whose residents we happen to know (i.e. friends, relatives).

Response rate:

The response rate was 95% - higher than our expected rate of 85% Total number of starting names/addresses 1265 - refusal at selected address 65 - full productive interview 1050 - partial productive interview 150

Weighting:

The Turkish Cypriot sample is weighted to reflect the difference in population size between the two communities. In order to correct between the Greek and Turkish Cypriot respondents we employed a weight to reflect the population ratio of the two communities as: We had 550 valid cases for the Greek Cypriot community and 500 valid cases for the Turkish Cypriot community. These ratios do not represent the distribution of the adult population for the Island (between the two communities). The ratio is 74.7 percent Greek Cypriot and 25.3 percent Turkish Cypriot. Therefore, in order to not lose the 1050 cases after applying our weights, the Greek side's weight needs to be multiplied by 1.4255 and the TC side's by .531955. Those numbers are obtained by setting the Greek side's total n of 550 over the total sample of 1050, then equalizing that ratio (about .52) to the Greek side's .747 of the population, that is $.747/.52=1.4255$. Likewise, the TC's n of 500 over 1050 (.4769), then set that ratio equalized to .253312 (TC proportion of total population) $.253312/.4769=.5312$ PLEASE NOTE. Analysts can treat the Greek and Turkish communities as separate groups if needed. Cases 1-500 are in Turkish language representing the Turkish Cypriot community and cases 501-1050 are in Greek representing the Greek Cypriot community. IF they treat the cases as two separate groups, they need to set weights to 1.00 for both communities.

Μερικοί άνθρωποι θεωρούν ότι κάποια προβλήματα θα μπορούσαν να αντιμετωπιστούν καλύτερα από τα Ηνωμένα Έθνη ή τις περιφερειακές οργανώσεις, όπως η Ευρωπαϊκή Ένωση, παρά από κάθε κυβέρνηση χωριστά. Άλλοι θεωρούν ότι αυτά τα προβλήματα θα πρέπει να τα αναλάβουν εξ'ολοκλήρου οι εθνικές κυβερνήσεις. Θα σας αναφέρω μερικά προβλήματα: Για κάθε ένα, θα ήθελα να μου πείτε εάν σκέφτεστε ότι η πολιτική σε αυτό το ζήτημα πρέπει να αποφασιστεί από τις εθνικές κυβερνήσεις, από τις περιφερειακές οργανώσεις (π.χ. Ε.Ε.), ή από τα Ηνωμένα Έθνη; (Διαβάστε και σημειώστε μια απάντηση για το κάθε ένα πρόβλημα):
