

Ministry of Rural Rehabilitation and Development

National Risk and Vulnerability Assessment 2003 - Data request form

The NRVA 2003 was designed to anticipate government's and other agencies' need for social and economic data. The data is publicly available. We request those wanting to receive a copy of the data to fill in the form below. We have done this so that we can understand the level, source and type of demand for the data. We hope that this information will help us to improve our understanding of data needs, and enable us to reflect these in the design of further assessments. We welcome any feedback on the value of the data, gaps in the data or any data quality issues. Please send this form, and any further feedback to: Vulnerability Analysis Unit-MRRD; email Andrew.Pinney@MRRD.org.

In requesting these data, it is recognized that the data are supplied for use within my organization, and I agree to the following stipulations as conditions for the use of the data:

1. All publications, conference papers, or other research reports based entirely or in part upon the requested NRVA data will be supplied to the Vulnerability Analysis Unit, Ministry of Rural Rehabilitation and Development-Kabul, Afghanistan; email Andrew.Pinney@MRRD.org (Both paper and electronic copies preferred).
2. The researcher will refer to the National Risk and Vulnerability Assessment 2003 as the source of the information in all publications, conference papers, and manuscripts. At the same time the MRRD is not responsible for the estimations reported by the analyst(s).
3. Users who receive the NRVA data may not pass the data to third parties. If a third party wants the data, please ask them to fill in this form and send to MRRD.
4. The database cannot be used for commercial ends, nor can it be sold.
