Interviewer’s Self-introduction

This study will interview samples representing most of the world's people. Your address has been selected at random as part of a representative sample of the people in Hong Kong. I'd like to ask your views on a number of different subjects. Your input will be treated strictly confidential but it will contribute to a better understanding of what people all over the world believe and want out of life.

May I ask if your household could be able to take part in the survey now? The interview would last for more than half an hour. After finishing the interview, the respondent would receive a 200 dollars supermarket coupon as reward.
