- V3. Interview number (write in 4-digit number identifying each respondent): _____

(Introduction by interviewer):

Hello. I am from the _____ (mention name of the interview organization). We are carrying out a global study of what people value in life. This study will interview samples representing most of the world's people. Your name has been selected at random as part of a representative sample of the people in _____ (mention country in which interview is conducted). I'd like to ask your views on a number of different subjects. Your input will be treated strictly confidential but it will contribute to a better understanding of what people all over the world believe and want out of life.

(Show Card A)

For each of the following, indicate how important it is in your life. Would you say it is (read out and code one answer for each):

		Very important	Rather important	Not very important	Not at all important
V4.	Family	1	2	3	4
V5.	Friends	1	2	3	4
V6.	Leisure time	1	2	3	4

(NOTE: V170 to V177 are only asked in OECD-countries!)

(Show Card W)

I'm going to read out another list of global problems, and goals that world leaders have set to reduce them. Indicate for each of these goals how high a priority your own country's leaders should give to it, using this card. (Read out and code one answer for each goal):

This battery only in Split B, OECD		Top priority	High priority	Medium priority	Low priority
V170.	About 25 percent of the world's population lives in extreme poverty—that is on less than one dollar per day. The goal is to cut this percentage in half by 2015.	1	2	3	4
V171.	At present, more than 130 million children of primary school age are not in school. The goal is to ensure that by 2015, all children will be able to finish primary school.	1	2	3	4
V172.	About eight out of every 100 children who are born around the world, die before their fifth birthday. The goal is to reduce this proportion by two-thirds, by 2015.	1	2	3	4
V173.	About five million people become infected with HIV/AIDS each year. The goal is to stop the spread of HIV/AIDS.	1	2	3	4
V174.	About 840 million people around the world live in slums. The goal is to make a significant improvement in the housing of at least 100 million people.	1	2	3	4

V175. In 2003, this country's government allocated [a tenth of one percent]* of the national income to foreign aid—that is, [$US 38.05]** per person. Do you think this amount is too low, too high, or about right? (Code one answer):

- 1 Too low
- 2 About right
- 3 Too high

* [Restate this figure using information for your country from the 1st table at the end of this document!]

** [Restate this figure using information for your country from the 2nd table at the end of this document!]

(If respondent answered "too low," go to next question! Otherwise skip next question!)

V176. How much more do you think this country should contribute? (Read out and code one answer):

- 1 About one and a half times as much
- 2 About twice as much
- 3 About three times as much
- 4 About four times as much
- 5 More than four times as much

V177. Would you be willing to pay higher taxes in order to increase your country's foreign aid to poor countries? (Code one answer!)

- 1 Yes
- 2 No

V178. Thinking at your own country's problems, should your country's leaders give top priority to help reducing poverty in the world or should they give top priority to solve your own country's problems? Use this scale where 1 means "top priority to help reducing poverty in the world" and 10 means "top priority to solve my own country's problems." (Code one answer):

Top priority to help reducing poverty in the world		Top priority to solve my own country's problems
1	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	10

Some people believe that certain kinds of problems could be better handled by the United Nations or regional organizations rather than by each national government separately. Others think that these problems should be left entirely to the national governments. I'm going to mention some problems. For each one, would you tell me whether you think that policies in this area should be decided by the national governments, by regional organizations, or by the United Nations? (Read out and code one answer for each problem):
