INSTRUCTIONS FOR PAGE 11

Page 11 is concerned with the respondent's expenditure during the past month^{*} or past week^{} on items for own use and to support or as a gift to other persons. Work your way through the items listed, asking the respondent about expenditure on each of them. Also try to find out how much was spent on items falling under 'other items'.

Before completing page 11-14, ask the respondent whether he was on holiday during past 12 months or during weekends in the past month. If so, complete the table on page 19 for holiday expenditure. This expenditure must not be duplicated on pages 11-14.

The following items must NOT be included:

1. Items bought and not consumed at home (e.g. consumed at cafés, bars, beerhalls). Expenditure on these items must be filled in on page 19.
2. Items bought for business purposes.

Include items bought on credit.

Remember to indicate where items were last bought.

N.B. ^{*}The past month can be interpreted either as the month preceding the month of the interview or as the 30 days preceding the date of the interview, so long as the expenditure on an item is given for a period of one month.

^{}Past week refers to the week (7 days) preceding the date of the interview.

N.B. Note that livestock bought for slaughter is for past year.

Alcoholic beverages In the space next to the expenditure table, write in the name of each kind of alcoholic beverage consumed by the respondent during the past week, specifying the amount spent each time on each type of alcoholic beverage.

Snacks consumed away from home
Complete as for alcoholic drinks.

Support of relatives Ask the respondent whether he supports persons by sending them cash, e.g. to family or parents in a rural area.

If cash was given as support during the past 12 months, state the recipient's relationship to the respondent in the relevant column. Specify the sum sent to each of such persons in the 'amount' column and indicate the area to which the cash was sent.

Holidays If the respondent was away on holiday for longer than a weekend during the past 12 months, ask him/her what amount was spent on the items listed in the table. Indicate the approximate sum spent on each of these items in the relevant column. Be careful not to duplicate items, i.e. a food item stated here must not be among food expenditure items earlier in the questionnaire.

If the respondent was away from home for weekends during the past month, find out what sum was spent on the items listed in the table and indicate the sum spent on each of these items in the amount column.

Savings Establish whether the respondent is in possession of a savings account or current bank account. Consult the relevant account/savings books for the most recent balances and the balances 12 months ago. Also ask whether he owns bonus bond and other saving certificates. Ask the values owned a year ago and at present and fill in the amounts in the relevant columns.

Education State the amount paid by the respondent during the past 12 months on each relevant item listed. Where applicable, state where the item was last bought.

N.B. When an '0' appears in the column 'Where last bought', you need not ask the question.
