Do not include items produced by your household – this information should be recorded in section 2.

4. Winning from Gambling

The last component of the diary will be for recording winnings from gambling such as bingo, tattslotto, bonus and raffle.

Section 1:Items Bought

The first section of the daily diary is for recording items bought. It includes items bought by either you or members of the household to be used by the household or by an individual member of the household such as food items, clothing, petrol, soap and others.

How to fill in Section 1

This section is for recording all daily expenses. The description of each item bought by you or any member of the household should be recorded under the column heading “ITEM DESCRIPTION”. Its corresponding quantity is to be recorded under the column heading “QUANTITY”. The column heading “UNIT” is for recording the unit of measurement of each item. If an item was bought with cash, write its value under the column heading “CASH”. If an item was bought on credit, record its value under the column heading :CREDIT”.

You should record all items bought including small items. For instance, do not record “groceries” but record its individual items such as butter, bubble gum, sugar. Record its brand name for instance, Pacific Corned Beef or Early Dawn Natural Oil. Give as much detail about each

To help you remember the things you or your household members have bought or spent money on, keep all receipts and fill in the diary when you get home. If you had not bought anything today, place a tick inside the box provided on the top of the page for the day.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTION FOR SOME ITEM

DRINKS AT STORES, CLUBS OR BARS AND RESTAURANTS

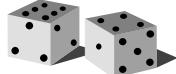

For drinks bought at a store, separate costs into the cost of beer, the cost of spirits, the cost of liqueur, the cost of fruit juice etc. For drinks bought at a pub or club, also say what type was bought and give the separate costs of each type if possible. If you can't remember the type of drinks write 'Drinks at (name of bar)' and the total amount spent.

CHILDREN'S POCKET MONEY

Write down the payments of pocket money made to children. The child must not record any item bought out of that pocket money or else it will be double counted.

If money was given to a child for a particular item then record the item - not as pocket money.

RAFFLES, BINGO

Write down the cost of any raffle ticket purchased or bingo cards played.
If you collect any winnings during the week, then write these down in section 4.

GROCERIES

Describe in full each item you bought. Please do not just put 'groceries'.

Section 3: Gifts Given and Gifts Received (Cash and Bought Goods)

The third section of the daily diary is for recording Gifts Given and Gifts Received including both cash and purchased goods. If you or any member of your household gives or receives anything from another household or from someone who is not a member of your household, record all its details in this section.

Please Note: Do not treat items exchanged among members of your household as gifts received or given. For example – if a household member's birthday falls within the week the daily expenditure diary is kept, the presents given to this person should not be recorded in this section. It should be recorded in section 1 – Items Bought.

How to fill in Section 3

- 3.1 During the 7 days you kept this diary, did you or any member of your household give to people outside your household any gifts of cash or purchased goods?

(Do not include home grown/ produce items such as vegetables your household has grown; fish you have caught, poultry, and handicrafts you have made. Record these items in Section 2). (Please tick appropriate box)

- 1 - Yes Go to 3.1A
