II. Changes in the household

1. Changes in the number of household members

State only permanent changes: e.g. birth of child, marriage, daughter moving in or out of household, etc.

2. Changes in employment

State household members who became economically active (started work) and members who changed their job. For persons who stopped working, state the reason (pension, lay-off) in the “employer” box.

3. Changes in household

State other changes affecting the data in the diary, e.g. changes concerning eating outside household, changes in household equipment, or data on persons (graduation from school, wedding etc.).

4. Temporary absence of household members

State e.g. recreation, business trip, holiday, children’s holiday camp. State whether it is a stay in the country or abroad, stay in hospital or spa (code to be filled in by statistics officer), stay with the relatives etc.

5. Food provided to non-household members

State only temporary visitors (e.g. uncle and his family) who are provided lodging and food for free. Enter the food or presents received from such persons into part V. (pages 30 - 31).

VI. Monthly overview of financial income and expenditures

Enter the summaries of groups of financial income and expenditures indicated in the particular line. If the data have been entered correctly the result of the left table (resources) should equal the result in the right table (use). In the case these results differ, a financial income or expenditure has not been entered correctly or in the correct amount. In this case it will be necessary to check the individual sections of the diary, add the missing entry or correct an entry to have a balanced result. (It is filled in by a statistics officer)
