During my visit (the month of the last quarterly interview) I left with you a journal for family's quarterly expenses to write down your large expenditures for the last three months.

[INTERVIEWER! It should be explained to the respondent that this is not the diary of daily expenses.]

Did you use the quarterly expenditures journal for the three last months?

Yes.....1 ⇒ 3
No.....2

Could you say why you did not use the quarterly expenditures journal ?

Difficult to fill in.....1
It takes too much to write.....2
It takes too much time.....3
Other (indicate).....4

Nevertheless, I would like to ask you a few questions regarding your expenditures. I hope that you can use the quarterly expenditures journal within the next three months, which would make our next interview much easier. ⇒ 1.4

Could you bring the quarterly expenditures journal to start to fill the quarterly questionnaire?

I would like to copy the information that you have written down in the quarterly expenditures journal into my questionnaire and in a general way. If you can think of some other expenditures that were not reflected in the quarterly expenditures journal for the last three months, please tell me now, so that I could add it in the questionnaire.

We would like to ask you about each expenditure category for this period (e.i. for the previous three months.)

I would like to remind you that non-frequent purchased commodities and services are as follows: clothes, foot ware, furniture, repair of home, books, jewellery, underwear, international and long distance transport and other expenses.

I would like to ask you about your household's expenditure on a number of different types of item. Please remember questions refer only to private consumption. Expenditures, related to production, business are not covered, beside the expenditures on small-scale farming.

[INTERVIEWER! While using the quarterly expenditures journal:]

I would like to know in which month you made these purchases, their cost, and if they were purchased as a gift to relatives and friends, who do not live with you, and other necessary information.

[INTERVIEWER! While filling in the questionnaire sections, you need to read all the list of goods in order to take into account everything that could be missed by the household while filling in the journal.
