1. Expenses on clothes, fabrics and shoes

During my visit, I have left you the logbook of quarterly expenses and income to record purchases of non-food products and services, as well as the income of your household within the last quarter.

Interviewer! The respondent should be explained that this is not the diary of daily expenditures

1.1. Could you please bring the logbook of quarterly expenditures income in order to start filling in of the quarterly questionnaire. At the beginning, I would like to move into my questionnaire the information that you have put down into logbook of quarterly expenditures and income. If you recollect any expenditures within the last three months, could you please inform me about them now, so that I could add then into the questionnaire?

1.2. Now, I would like to ask you some clarifying questions about your expenses for clothes, shoes, household goods and other non-food products and services.

Interviewer! Text on this page does not need to be pronounced word for word. Your interpretation of the provided information is possible. Further on, we request you to ask questions strictly in accordance to the text.
