

Wave 6 – Malaysia

Non response report

Majority of the people were happy to participate. However, some people in the rural areas were suspicious of the intention of this survey. They suspected that it could be the tactic used by the ruling party trying to test their loyalty and refused to participate.