Fieldwork Period:

18-11-2011 - 15-12-2011.

Universe:

National Population, Both sexes, 18 and more years

Sample size:

1535

Estimated Error:

2,6

Sample:

The sample is representative of the adult population of Belarus aged 18+ and the sample size is 1,500 respondents. The survey covers all regions (oblasts) of Belarus based on the administrative and territorial division of the country: Minsk, Vitebsk, Mogilev, Gomel, Brest, Grodno oblasts and Minsk (capital city). The number of interviews is distributed by settlements taking into account the number of population residing in these settlements. The distribution was calculated in several stages: 1. The number of interviews for urban and rural areas was allocated taking into account the percentage ratio of the urban and rural population within the universe; 2. The number of interviews for oblasts was allocated taking into account the percentage ratio of the population of all oblasts; 3. Allocation of interviews by settlements. The urban population in each oblast is represented by the following types of towns: capital city, oblast city (centre), large-size town (>100 thousand people), medium-size town (100 - >50 thousand people) and small-size town (50 thousand people). The towns are selected so that they are distributed uniformly throughout each oblast. The number of interviews is determined taking into account the share of the population of each of the above mentioned types of towns. The rural population is represented by rural settlements situated within the range of 20km from the sampled towns. The random route method is used to select the respondent. Moving along the route: the total number of houses on the street is divided by two, the resulting figure is a starting point of the route. The interviewer contacts each flat with a compulsory observance of the principle of three call-backs (at different times, not earlier than in two hours and on different days (weekdays and weekends). Walk along the route is done using a skip interval of  $n+5$  from the realized interview. The respondent within a household is selected using the recent birthday rule.

Survey procedure:

Personal Face to Face Interview

Fieldwork:

The method of data collection is face-to-face interviewing at the respondent's home using the structured questionnaire.

V55.- Some people feel they have completely free choice and control over their lives, while other people feel that what they do has no real effect on what happens to them. Please use this scale where 1 means "no choice at all" and 10 means "a great deal of choice" to indicate how much freedom of choice and control you feel you have over the way your life turns out:

Belarus 2011(N=1535)

Некоторые считают, что у них есть полная свобода выбора, и они сами контролируют свою жизнь, а другие – напротив, думают, что не могут в реальности влиять, на то, что с ними происходит. Пожалуйста, используйте шкалу, на которой 1 значит «совсем нет выбора», а 10 «полный выбор и контроль», чтобы ответить, насколько Вы можете контролировать свою жизнь.

It uses only four variables: V19= Important Child Qualities: Religious Faith V21= Important Child Qualities: Obedience V12= Important Child Qualities: Independence V18= Important Child Qualities: Determination, Perseverance Only variables with answers to all v19,v21,v12,18 have an index. The SPSS like formula is: Compute Y003=-5. if v19>=0 and v21>=0 and v12>=0 and v18>=0 then Y003=(v19 + v21)-(v12 +v18).
