ABSTRACT

The FAO has developed a monitoring system in 26 food crisis countries to better understand the impacts of various shocks on agricultural livelihoods, food security and local value chains. The Monitoring System consists of primary data collected from households on a periodic basis (more or less every four months, depending on seasonality). The FAO conducted a fourth round of household survey in Colombia to monitor agricultural livelihoods and food security across the rural population. The survey was conducted between 23 January and 22 February 2023 across ten priority departments: Antioquia, Arauca, Bolívar, Boyacá, Cesar, Chocó, Córdoba, La Guajira, Nariño and Putumayo. The information was collected through computer-assisted telephone interviews. For more information, please go to <https://data-in-emergencies.fao.org/pages/monitoring>

Sampling

SAMPLING PROCEDURE

The information was collected through computer-assisted telephone interviews applied to a panel of informants corresponding to the third monitoring round conducted in July 2022. The final sample consisted of 2771 rural households surveyed in ten prioritized departments: Antioquia, Arauca, Bolívar, Boyacá, Cesar, Chocó, Córdoba, La Guajira, Nariño and Putumayo.

WEIGHTING

Weights were computed using the population counts at adm1 level.

DATA EDITING

The datasets have been edited and processed for analysis by the Needs Assessment team at the Office of Emergencies and Resilience, FAO, with some dashboards and visualizations produced. For more information, see <https://data-in-emergencies.fao.org/pages/countries>.

METHODOLOGY NOTES

The dataset was anonymized using Statistical Disclosure methods by the Data in Emergencies Hub team and reviewed by the Office of Chief Statistician at FAO. All direct identifiers have been removed prior to data submission.

In addition, recoding and local suppressions were applied to ensure data confidentiality. Recoding was especially applied to variables, such as education, marital status, household size, residence status and wealth indicators.
